

HABIBA BALOGUN

Habiba Balogun is the director and principal consultant of Habiba Balogun Consulting Limited, an Organisation Effectiveness and HR Consultancy. She is also a certified leadership coach, a certified NLP Practitioner, and a CMD (Nigeria) -certified trainer. Habiba is a fellow of the Aspen Leadership Network and the Africa Leadership Initiative West Africa. She is a director of Accion Microfinance Bank, Fate Foundation, KIND (Kudirat Initiative for Democracy) and a founding Director of Lagos Preparatory School, the most highly accredited British International School in Africa.

She is multi-lingual, speaking 5 European languages, and holds a Bachelor's Degree in French and Italian from the University of London, a Masters degree in Organisational Management, including Leadership Coaching and Team Facilitation, from George Washington University, Washington DC.

Drawing on her 26 years experience in business, industry, management, leadership and consulting, her coaching specialty is executive coaching of female Chief Executive Officers. She does take on male chief executives who need to successfully acquire the additional qualities and attributes demanded by new leadership positions.

She is a gender activist and sought-after moderator, trainer, and public speaker. She is also actively involved in several not-for-profit & social entrepreneurship organizations in Nigeria. More information on her extensive multinational and local client base as well as testimonials are available at www.hbalogunconsult.com and on LinkedIn.

Her clients include Oil & Gas Companies, Telecom Companies, Banks, Manufacturers, Professional firms, NGOs, CSOs, and Business Associations.