

Weyinmi Jemide

Weyinmi Jemide is the Chief Client Officer of Weyinmi Jemide LLP (www.weyinmijemide.com). He influences people and organisations through executive coaching, group facilitation and learning interactions. He also engages people to find their identities and positively influence their world.

He is a Certified Facilitator of The Leadership Challenge Workshops and a Certified Master Coach from the Behavioral Coaching Institute of Australia - the first Nigerian to attain both certifications. A Chartered Accountant and a Member of the International Association of Facilitators, he also holds a Masters degree in Leading Innovation and Change.

He has acquired over thirty years of organisational experience in professional services and banking including diverse roles in executive management. He has worked variously at United Bank for Africa, Akintola Williams & Co (now Deloitte), Reed Taylor, NNB International Bank and Ashford & McGuire Consulting.

He is the author of Proverbial Business, a series of insights on business and life based on the Book of Proverbs. He is a Pastor of The Redeemed Christian Church of God. He is married to Regina with two daughters and a son.

A handwritten signature of Weyinmi Jemide in black ink on a light background. The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style. The first name 'Weyinmi' is written in a slightly larger font than the last name 'Jemide'. The signature is enclosed in a thin black rectangular border.